

ABOUT ARAB FOUNDATIONS FORUM

AFF is a membership-based network of donors, foundations, and other philanthropy actors working across, and in support of, the Arab region. Our work includes:

CAPACITY DEVELOPMENT

Customized capacity development modules, designed with regional and global experts, on issues relevant to the sector and tailored to fit your organization's needs

ADVOCACY

AFF plays a pivotal role in facilitating and spearheading initiatives around advocacy for the sector, whether on behalf of our members or in service thereof. We do that by engaging in the development of advocacy initiatives that are relevant to the sector and seek out opportunities to position AFF as a key player in this space

COMMUNICATION & OUTREACH

We want AFF and its members to be front-and-center when it comes to all things philanthropy in the Arab region. To that end, we aim to raise the profile of the organization and the network by communicating our impact and increasing the visibility of our regional sector globally

STRATEGIC PHILANTHROPY

KNOWLEDGE & RESOURCES

We believe data is key. AFF is committed to engaging the sector on issues related to data, research and the creation of credible knowledge resources in order to advance the region's role in development on a global scale. AFF aims to define itself as a knowledge and resource hub for all things related to strategic philanthropy as regards the Arab region. We believe in data and research because we believe that when we own our data, we own our narrative. When we own our narrative, we can tell our own story

NETWORKING

Nurturing our diverse and growing network is key to the continued success of the Forum and its future sustainability. Being a member of the network means you are connected to a regional and global family of the most impactful and influential actors in the civil society and philanthropy sectors

AFF'S MEMBERSHIP TYPES

- Individual Member
Open to individuals who are active in the sector, but not necessarily affiliated with an institution or organization (consultants, researchers, etc.)
- Organizational Member
The AFF network is open to foundations and institutions that serve as donors and /or contribute to the philanthropy ecosystem and/or are engaged with the promotion of philanthropic work in all its varied forms, including research, thin tanks, universities, philanthropy advisories, etc.
- Supporting Member
The Supporting Member category is for organizations that are committed to supporting the sustainability and development of philanthropy infrastructure and its ecosystem. Organizations in this category serve as supporting donors to the AFF, and seek ways to offer concrete support of philanthropy development and who want to contribute to (or participate in) the mission of the AFF network.
